

CPSA, DC 119 is proud to present

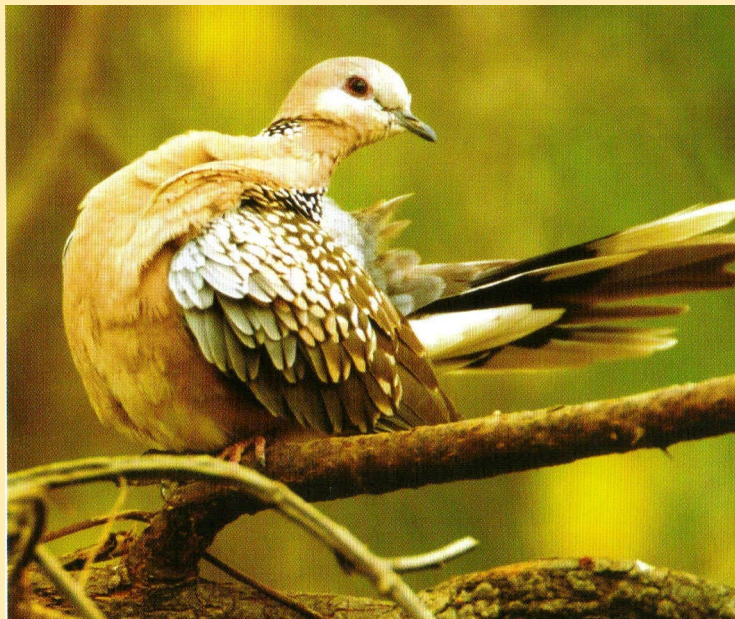

2023 Workshop Featuring Anda Chance, CPSA, CPX

Anda Chance is an award winning artist, receiving recognition in local, national, and international shows for her colored pencil art.

She has received commissions for public projects, publications and individuals. In addition to showing her own work, Anda curates and judges for local and regional art shows, art groups, public exhibitions and individual artists.

Currently, she works and teaches in her studio in McAlpin, FLs. She stays busy with gallery work, teaching workshops and working with local and regional non-profits promoting the arts.

Anda studied Art at ATU and taught art for 16 years in Florida public schools.

Eurasian Collared Dove

Anda will be sharing what she considers to be some basic principles of art, value and contrast (hard vs soft). Additionally, for more advanced participants, Anda will be sharing her particular style with colored pencils, what can go wrong, and how to correct errors.

She encourages your participation and knows you have your own art experiences to share with her.
